Join the brightest minds in education and technology

1EdTech K-12 members bring their effort, expertise, and enthusiasm to improve digital teaching and learning experiences every day. Through our work, we are at the forefront of a digital transformation to power learner potential. We are enabling faculty choice in edtech tools, data-driven decisions, and opening the doors to capturing and sharing digital achievements.

Our collaboration with higher education, corporate learning, and edtech suppliers continues to lead the way in making positive impacts in classrooms, administrative offices, and homes around the globe. We can’t wait for you to join us!

Two membership levels to meet your needs

Whether you’re an individual school, district, or state department of education, we all have an important part to play in shaping an open, innovative, and trusted ecosystem. We designed our two membership options with you in mind.

“At 1EdTech, you are among some of the best thinkers and doers in K-12 edtech. It’s informative, inspiring and really helpful, because you can see what they do and adapt it to fit the needs of your own district.”
